

September 19, 2011

PRESS RELEASE

NBP EMPLOYEES CONTRIBUTE RS.16.774 MILLION IN PRIME MINISTER'S FLOOD RELIEF FUND

Karachi: September 19, 2011: National Bank of Pakistan employees have come forward to help the flood affected people and have contributed Rs.16.774 million from their salaries to Prime Minister's Flood Relief Fund-2011. This amount IS in addition to Rs.141.5 million paid by the Bank, out of which Rs. 25 million were contributed in Prime Minister's Flood Relief Fund-2011; Rs.50.0 Million for establishment of medical camps and food packets and Rs.66.5 million for tents to provide temporary shelter to the flood affected people.

Officers, clerical and non clerical employees have contributed one day salary, AVP/VP/SVP two days salary and EVP & above have contributed three days salary.

NBP Senior Management and all employees of the Bank are committed to stand with the nation at this juncture when their countrymen are in need and would appeal to the people of Pakistan to come forward and donate generously to help their countrymen in this hour of need.

Aamir Abbasi,
Senior Vice President
Corporate Communication & Brand Management