

National Bank of Pakistan Hosts Eid Milad-un-Nabi Program at Head Office

Karachi, September 4, 2025: The National Bank of Pakistan (NBP) organized a soulful program at its Head Office in Karachi to celebrate Eid Milad-un-Nabi, the blessed day marking the birth of the Holy Prophet Muhammad (PBUH). This day holds immense significance for Muslims worldwide as a reminder of the Prophet's message of peace, mercy, and guidance for humanity.

The event commenced with the recitation of the Holy Quran, followed by heartfelt Naat recitations by renowned Naat Khwaans, Mehmood Ashrafi and Khawar Naqshbandi. Their moving renditions created a spiritually uplifting atmosphere, reminding all participants of the best practices and teachings of the Prophet Muhammad (PBUH), which centered on honesty, integrity and service to all mankind.

On the occasion, Mr. Rehmat Hasnie, President & CEO, NBP, shared his thoughts, "As we mark nearly 1500 years since the blessed birth of Prophet Muhammad (PBUH), the occasion of 12th Rabi-ul-Awal serves as a powerful reminder of his timeless legacy of integrity, compassion, and trustworthiness. At NBP, this sacred occasion was commemorated with deep reverence and unity, honoring the Prophet's message through heartfelt celebrations and reflection."

Senior management and staff members of NBP attended the program in large numbers. The occasion highlighted NBP's commitment to honoring Islamic traditions and fostering an environment of faith, respect, and unity within the organization.

The Eid Milad-un-Nabi (PBUH) program concluded with a special prayer for the prosperity of Pakistan, the well-being of the Ummah, and the continued progress of NBP as the nation's bank.

